

Autographs

John W. Wells
Cincinnati Ohio
Nov 28th 76

Frank W. Grandage
St Louis Mo

5/4/82

"I come to say 'Farewell,' an idle word
Spoken to thee who fareest well always
'Goodbye then,' Idle still, as God were not

With thee through all thy never ending days,"

Lovingly Yours
Ella S.

Miss Christie -

Although I realize that another may soon claim that fair hand which I dare not even hope to pass, I must subscribe myself your ardent admirer, -

Dec 2nd '76.

J. Fremont Scovill,
Luderville, Ohio

Pure friendship is a gordian knot

By changed hands 'tis tied

By heavenly skill its texture's wrought

Who shall its folds divide?

W. M.

Impromptu—

Will you e'er forget the rain,
Dripping, Dropping, on the pane;
And Oh! the thunder how it roared

* * * * *

The lightning flashed and then it gleamed —

* * * * *

Piously yours

Lilly B. Maclean.

Clinton, Ill.

March 24, 1876.

Crissy:

Will you ever forget the time that for once in our lives, we were in unison?

Affectionately,

A Helen Macdonald

Photo Gallery?

March 30/8/6.

Christon Ails.

"To Christie"

May happiness ever be thine,
And peace thy steps attend:
Receive this tribute of respect
From her that is your friend.

Circleville Ohio.

Nov. 20th 1876.

Votre Amie!

M. Fannie Lilly.

"Christie"

"May your life have just enough clouds
To make a glorious sunset."

Your Friend
Clara W. Lodwick

Portsmouth Ohio

Nov 20th 1876

"And that's all"

Sweet be thy dreams, the fair, the young!
Grace, beauty, breathe upon thee!
Music, haunt thee about thy tongue!
Life, fill thy path with honor!

All golden thoughts, all wealth of days,
Truth, Friendship, Love, surround thee!
So may you smile till life be closed,
And angel bands have crowned thee!

St. Louis. Sep. 27th / 75.

Sincerely
Laura.

Christie

"Words, like mortals, will be most highly valued where they are best and longest known."

Your Friend

Ida Cartter.

August 11 - 1870.

H. J. Lowry
Marshall Texas

~~Oct 21st
1888~~

David H. Lowry
Oct 21st 1888
Whitman Co.

Uniontown.
Washington Territory.

William Lowry
Ladodoma Mo

~~Oct 21st
1888~~

Sincerely Your Friend.

Leslie W. Johnson.

Chillicothe.

Ohio.

July 28. 1874.

To Christina,

To flourish 'round my native bower,
To blossom 'round my native cot;
I cultivate a little flower,
They call - For-get-me-not.

Your friend
Winnie A. Henley.

St. Louis, Mo.

March 17th, 1875.

Dearest love, when thy memory in future shall just
When youth and its pleasures give way to old age,
When another less fond, shall too coldly embrace thee
Oh! then for my sake will you turn to this page!

U U Y. Y U A N U U M N A.

' Y U A N U U M N A. N U A U. Y U O E, U. U.

Remember me when far away,
And when but half awake;
Remember me on your wedding-day,
And send me a piece of cake.
Your Friend
Helen R. Scott